

The 2018 Gold Coast-Hamburg Historic District Home Tour

Davenport
Sept. 22 & 23
12 Noon – 4PM

“No Home Left Behind”

The Gold Coast – Hamburg Historic District Home Tour

Saturday & Sunday, September 22 & 23, 12N – 4PM
Homes on Tour

510 W. 6th St., c 1857 The Julietta (Bockoven) & Joseph Lambrite House. Oldest example of a rare wood frame Italian Villa style house in Davenport. Designed by John C. Cochrane. First time on tour after extensive restoration.

714 W. 6th St., c 1870 The Ferriday-Rothschild-Techentin House. A side gable example of Greek Revival style with symmetrical façade. Current owners have adapted This historic home with an contemporary interior.

817 W. 7th St., c 1895 The Ottelie (Schlapp) & Henry E. Koehler House. Queen Anne Free Classic style, designed by Clausen, Hubbell, and Burrows. The house recently received a complete restoration.

519 W. 8th St., c 1905 The Wilhelmina P. "Minnie" (Haak) & Charles E. Meier House. American Foursquare/Craftsman style with Georgian Revival detailing.

537 W. 9th St., 1915 The Maude Mildred (Davis) & William Goettsch House. American Foursquare. Newly restored and first time on tour.

712 W. 2nd St. The German American Heritage Center.

732 Gaines St. The Jipp Home and Grocery.

Tickets: Adults – $15.00; Children under 12 free when accompanied by adult.
On sale day of tour at all Tour locations.
More Information: www.davenportgoldcoast.org 563-326-3290